

Press Release

City of Edmonds

Mayor Gary Haakenson

September 18, 2009
For Immediate Release

HISTORIC PRESERVATION COMMISSION SEEKS NEW MEMBER

(Edmonds - WA) The City of Edmonds is seeking an interested citizen for the Historic Preservation Commission. Applicants must reside within the city of Edmonds, have a demonstrated interest or competence in historic preservation, and possess qualities of impartiality and broad judgment.

The commission identifies and actively encourages conservation of the city's historic resources by maintaining a register of historic places and reviewing proposed changes to register properties to raise community awareness of the city's history and historic resources. It serves as the city's primary resource in matters of history, historic planning, and preservation. The commission meets the second Thursday of each month at 4 p.m. at City Hall.

Interested individuals may pick up an application at the reception desk in the lobby of City Hall located at 121 5th Ave. N., or call 425.771.0247 to receive an application by mail or email.

Applications must be submitted by 4:30 p.m. Friday, October 23. Applications will be reviewed by current commission members prior to recommendation to the Mayor.

###